

Exploring Ecologies of Mind in (Mental) Health: Eco-Pathologies and Onto-Politics of Healing Economies

Freie Universität Berlin, 16-17 May 2019

Convenors: Caroline Meier zu Biesen (Freie Universität Berlin), Nasima Selim (Freie Universität Berlin), Claudia Lang (Cermes3, Paris), Dominik Mattes (Freie Universität Berlin)

Thursday, 16 May, FU Berlin, Seminarzentrum (Otto-von-Simson Str. 26), Room L116

10:00-10:30	Registration
10:30-10:45	Welcome and Introduction
10:45-12:45	Panel 1: Landscapes and human-environment relations
10:45-11:15	Enrico Milazzo (University of Turin) Ecology of healing: Olive oil and Sapiientia in capo Leuca
11:15-11:45	Federico Reginato (University of Turin) Cancer landscapes: History, health and politics in Morocco
11:45-12:00	Coffee break
12:00-12:30	Young su Park (Freie Universität Berlin) Haunting landscapes: Memories of forced villagization, conscription, and deforestation in Ethiopia
12:30-12:45	Plenary discussion
12:45-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-17:30	Panel 2: Traditional medicine and spiritual healing in more-than-human-worlds (working title)
14:00-14:30	Müge Akpınar (Freie Universität Berlin) Body, health and ecology in a traditional healing movement in Turkey
14:30-15:00	Elizabeth Turk (University of Cambridge) The politics of treating mental ill health, plural progressivisms, and nature's authority in contemporary Mongolia
15:00-15:30	Alvaro Gabriel Martínez (Universidad Católica Boliviana) Symbol in rituality in the healing process of soul diseases in La Paz, Bolivia
15:30-15:45	Coffee break
15:45-16:15	Rebecca-Rosea Blome (Freie Universität Berlin) Applying traditional (medicinal) knowledge and giving back. Takiwasi's (epistemological) practices of reciprocity
16:15-17:15	Mike Poltorak (University of Kent) The healer and the psychiatrist: Intersubjectivity, mental illness and the ecology of spirits in Tonga (film screening and discussion)
17:15-17:30	Plenary discussion
19:00	Dinner

Friday, 17 May, FU Berlin, Otto-Suhr-Institut, Ihnestr. 21, ground floor, Hörsaal B

	Panel 3: Ecologies of mental health care
10:00-10:30	Nadia Augustyniak (University of New York) Configurations of care: The social and political dimensions of psychological counseling practice in Sri Lanka's Central Province
10:30-11:00	Liana Chase (School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London) Shifting 'ecologies of care' in post-earthquake Nepal: Towards a rubric for the anthropology of global mental health
11:00-11:30	Claudia Lang (Cermes3, Paris) Ecologies of depression and moral physiologies in Ayurvedic psychiatry
11:30-11:45	Coffee break
11:45-12:30	Ulrike Scholtes (University of Amsterdam) Wording sensitivities. The performativity of words and the practice-specificity of bodies and minds (participatory session)
12:30-13:00	Tylor Zoanni (University of Bayreuth) Minding differences: Ecologies of language, cognition, and disability in Uganda
13:00-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-14:30	Patrick Bieler, Milena D. Bister and Christine Schmid (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin) Urban mental health trajectories
14:30-15:00	Márcio Da Cunha Vilar (University of Sussex) 'Breaking the cycle of inherited wounds': Emergent therapies for mental health and autoimmunity, and respective causalities
15:00-15:15	Coffee break
15:15-15:45	Florin Cristea (Freie Universität Berlin) What's in a name? An epidemiology of representation of the concept of "mind" in a mental hospital in Tanga, Tanzania
15:45-16:30	Wrap-up